Corpus Christi - Do this in memory of me!

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – Corpus Christi, experts say was previewed at Capernaum (John 6), officially established in the Upper Room in Jerusalem (Matthew 26) and illustrated on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24). At the Upper Room, 'when the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, Father most holy, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end: and while they were at supper, he took bread, blessed and broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take this, all of you and eat of it, for this is my Body which will be given up for you...And taking the chalice filled with the fruit of the vine, he gave thanks and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying: Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the Chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins, do this in memory of me.' At Mass - the Eucharist - we give thanks for Christ's loving kindness. We commemorate and relive the mystery of our redemption. We remember Christ's Death and descent to the realm of the dead. We proclaim his Resurrection and his Ascension to the right hand of the Father and finally we await his coming in glory. In obedience to his command to do this in memory of me, the Church, (all of us) do this in memory of He who loved us and gave His life for us. He has left us an example that we ought to follow in his steps. As we eat his Body and drink his Blood, we pray that we also become the bread broken for the joy and happiness of our sisters and brothers.
