MARRYING ABROAD

Couples living in this parish who wish to marry outside of the diocese or of the country, should contact one of the priests who will prepare the paperwork with them and forward the documents through the diocesan chancery to the parish where the marriage is to take place. In some countries it is only able to secure delivery of these documents by use of a courier service. When that is necessary the diocese will change the couple for this service it costs £100.