The Most Holy Trinity

Eleventh Week
in Ordinary Time

Vol III. Psalter week 3

The Most Holy Trinity

Our hearts are restless until they rest in thee O Lord. Thus wrote St Augustine. This restless yearning stems from a nostalgia for relationship and intimacy with God which had been lost by our first parents who decided to live outside the realms of that relationship. Jesus revealed a deep level of intimacy between Himself and one he called his Father. He revealed the nature of God as relationship, a communion of love between three persons. Since we are made in the image of God, and each of us uniquely created as persons are destined to be restored to that relationship with God by Baptism. Is there any wonder then at our sense of being out of synch with our environment, being estranged from ourselves, and of feeling alienated even from those who are closest to us, when we choose to go our own way?

By maintaining our baptismal promises and deepening our sacramental life, by placing God again at the centre of our lives, we once again experience the peace of homecoming - being at one with God puts us at one with the world and those around us. As children of God our happiness on earth depends on what the first reading from Proverbs describes as 'delighting in His presence', and, in turn, He delights in us at play in his presence. To be caught up in the delightful interplay of love between the persons of the Trinity is what we human beings were created for - God's desire to share his inner world of delight with us human beings is why He created us and, more wonderfully, why he sent his Son to redeem us.

God, in Christ, the second person of the Blessed Trinity was reconciling us to Himself through Jesus - Himself a divine person. In fact, Jesus, in His final prayer to the Father revealed the incredible vocation of us all that we enjoy the same unity with God as He does with the Father: 'that they may be one in us, as you Father are in me and I in thee; so that the world may know that it was you who sent me' (Jn 17: 20-21). What is more, we deepen that relationship with the Father by living as true disciples of Christ. When addressing the Father, Jesus made it clear that they who by obedience to his word become living temples in which the Trinity makes their permanent dwelling. Jesus tells the disciples in fact, that by enacting what he has told them through his Word the third person of the Trinity will be poured out into them with all His gifts - the Holy Spirit. We complete Gods purpose by presenting Christ to the world by living as a community animated by the Holy Spirit. He is the living heartbeat of the Church of which Christ is the Head and we are its members. By living the gospel through the strength derived from the Eucharist and the sacraments we restore everything to God and become Christs presence in the world, a communion of love seeking out all in the world that are estranged from God, that they too might be caught up in the delight at play in the endless communion of love which is the Trinity.

SECOND COLLECTION

Next Sunday, 19 June, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, is a day in the Church's Life dedicated to celebrating the Sacredness of Life. The proceeds of the Day for Life Collection that day provide core funding for the Ancombe Bioethics Centre (<https://www.bioethics.org.uk/>) and assist other life related activities supported by the Church, usually by means of grants made to support Catholic charities working in the field determined by the theme of the year.

PACT - ROADSHOW

In partnership with the Archdiocese of Southwark, Catholic prison chaplains and The Welcome Directory, Pact, the Catholic Prison Charity, welcomes you to a day of learning, reflection, and action ideas - to be opened by Archbishop Wilson. Saturday 11 June from 10am-4pm, Amigo Jubilee Hall, Lambeth Rd, SE1 7HY.

'At Pact we believe everyone can make a fresh start, whatever they have done. In many parishes, we may rarely talk about prisoners and their families yet around 90,000 children in England & Wales will go to bed tonight without mum or dad because they are in prison.

Come and find out more about people in our communities who are affected by imprisonment. Hear from prisoners and their families what life is like, including after prison. Think about simple ways you can help individually or as a parish.

We extend a warm welcome to all.'

Simple lunch & refreshments provided. Please visit <https://www.prisonadvice.org.uk/Event/justpeople-roadshow-southwark> for more info & to register.

Parish News

A WORD OF THANK YOU

Canon John would like to express his gratitude for all the kind wishes, messages of condolences and prayers on the bereavement of his brother Julian Clark (RIP).

FIRST COLLECTION AT WEEKEND MASSES

We have now resumed the first collection at the Offertory of the Mass using the wide baskets. Parishioners are however encouraged to continue to use the digital giving terminals or give by banker's order. Forms for making a banker's order are available at the back of the church.

MASKS, SANITISERS

We would like to inform you that as from the 1st of August there will be no more masks and sanitiser provided in the church. Everyone will need to bring their own should they need to.

UKRAINIAN REFUGEES

The Archdiocese of Southwark is actively encouraging parishes to welcome Ukrainian refugees under the Government's Sponsorship Scheme.

Sacred Heart Parish, therefore, would like to extend its welcome to Ukrainian refugees by offering accommodation. If you have family in the Ukraine or know of individuals seeking refuge from the conflict, please contact Alain van West (vanwest31@gmail.com) with their contact details.
