Be a good neighbour in the way that Jesus is

Today's gospel reveals another aspect of our discipleship. A lawyer asked Jesus two key questions. The first was, 'What must I do to inherit eternal life?' He then asked, 'Who is my neighbour?' It is the second question that draws from Jesus the parable of the good Samaritan. However, that parable doesn't really answer the question, 'Who is my neighbour?'. It answers another question, the one Jesus asks at the end, 'Which of these three proved himself a neighbour?'

In fact, the parable tells us what it means to be a neighbour to someone in need. For Jesus it is more important to be a neighbour to others than to debate the limits of who can count as my neighbour. The answer to the first question, about inheriting eternal life is 'Be a good neighbour.'

If you want to know what it means to be a neighbour, think about the Samaritan. What the priest, the Levite and the Samaritan all had in common is that they all noticed; they all saw the broken man by the roadside. What distinguished the Samaritan is that he responded to what he noticed. His seeing led him to compassionate serving. It is the kind of seeing that characterised Jesus' whole ministry. So, Jesus' answer to the lawyer's first question is 'Be a neighbour in the way that I am.'

SECOND COLLECTION

Today, 10 July, the 2nd collection will be taken up for the AoS, the Apostleship of the Sea, a Catholic charity supporting seafarers worldwide, regardless of nationality or belief. The AoS in Great Britain is part of an intl. network known to the maritime world as Stella Maris, it relies wholly on voluntary contributions and can only continue its work through the generous donations of its supporters, particularly in this collection. Envelopes will be available at the back of the church from this weekend.

DESIDERIO DESIDERAVI

In his Apostolic Letter Desiderio desideravi Pope Francis has written to the people of God on the liturgy, to recall the profound meaning of Eucharistic celebrations as it emerged from the Council and to encourage liturgical formation. The Pope's Apostolic Letter reaffirms the importance of ecclesial communion around the rite that emerged from the post-conciliar liturgical reform. It is not a new instruction or a directive with specific norms, but rather a meditation on understanding the beauty of liturgical celebration and its role in evangelisation. It concludes with an in appeal: "Let us abandon our polemics to listen together to what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Let us safeguard our communion. Let us continue to be astonished at the beauty of the Liturgy". The Christian faith, Pope Francis writes, is either an encounter with the living Jesus or it is not: 'The Liturgy guarantees for us the possibility of such an encounter. For us a vague memory of the Last Supper would do no good. We need to be present at that Supper' (www.vatican.va/content/vatican/en.html).

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR JULY

Pope Francis has asked the Catholic Church to pray in a special way for the elderly during the month of July. The prayer intention follows requests to pray for families in June and for young people in May and coincides with the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on July 24: "We cannot speak about family without talking about the importance of the elderly among us, [...] We elderly people often have a special sensitivity for care, for reflection, and affection, [...] We are, or we can become, teachers of tenderness." Pope Francis said in a video message released June 30.

'Let us pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people, that their experience and wisdom will help those who are younger to look to the future with hope and responsibility.'
