2024 Year of Prayer The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (B)

Ninth Week in Ordinary Time Vol. III psalter week I

TODAY'S MASS:

First Reading (Ex 24:3-8): The Israelites offered burnt offerings as communion sacrifices, in thanks-giving for receiving the ten commandments. These same themes or concepts - communion, sacrifice, offering, thanksgiving - are very much part of our understanding of the Eucharist.

Psalm (Ps 115:12-13. 15-18. R.v13): Another Old Testament linking of the thanksgiving sacrifice and the cup (or chalice).

Second Reading (Heb 9:11-15): The Letter to the Hebrews asserts that Christ is the true high priest, who has made the perfect sacrifice by his Blood. Every earthly Eucharist is but a foreshadowing of the true heavenly Liturgy.

Sequence: The Lauda Sion sequence was composed by St Thomas Aquinas in 1264, when Pope Urban IV instituted the new feast of Corpus Christi. As it is rather long, only a shortened version is given in the Missalette. Gospel (Mk 14:12-16.22-26): The account in Mark of Our Lord's institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Notice the explicit and unambiguous language: 'this is my body ... this is my blood'.

Notice also the fourfold action: Jesus took the bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it. This is the same fourfold action that the priest celebrant performs at Mass.

Notice moreover the reference to the Passover lamb being sacrificed: by the time the Gospel was written the earliest Christians already understood that Jesus was the lamb of sacrifice, who takes away our sins. Fr David

He is already known as 'the patron saint of the internet'. He is believed to be the youngest person to be Beatified, the last stage before Canonisation. We thank God for this wonderful news.
