Hosted in the Church Lounge

Today's Mass

The First Reading (Isaiah 9:1b-4) is the passage of Scripture referred to in today's Gospel, in which Matthew emphasises that Jesus will fulfil this prophecy in His mission to the Gentiles.

Psalm 27(26) is a simple and confident hymn of trust in the Lord.

Second Reading (1 Corinthians 1:10-13,17): St Paul urges the Corinthians to avoid different parties within the Church and tells them to unite around Christ. This is an important text as we observe the Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity.

Year A is the Year of Matthew, and from today onwards, the Sunday Gospels work through the First Gospel, allowing the main themes and emphases of Matthew to emerge. In today's Gospel (Matthew 4:12-23), Jesus begins His public ministry. First, He fulfils Scripture by bringing light into darkness and begins His preaching with the message of repentance. Then, He calls the four fishermen to be His disciples. Finally, He begins preaching, teaching, and healing.

Canon David

Sunday of the Word of God

The theme of this seventh Sunday of the Word of God is: 'The Word of Christ dwells among you' (Colossians 3:16). The Sunday of the Word of God is a profoundly pastoral initiative to make it clear how important it is in the daily life of the Church and our communities to refer to the Word of God – a Word that is not confined to a book, but which remains ever alive and becomes a concrete and tangible sign.

Second Collection: St George's Cathedral

St George's Metropolitan Cathedral is the Mother Church of our Archdiocese of Southwark. This collection helps to meet the cost of the Cathedral's upkeep. Leaflets about becoming a Friend of St George's Cathedral are available at the back of the church.
